Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 04/28/2005 amendment after the Final in the application of Kato for a "Mobile communication system and method of controlling synchronization between base stations" filed 11/30/2000. This application claims foreign priority based on the application 11-340044 filed November 30, 1999 in Japan. The proposed amendment to the claims, and response have been entered and made of record. Claims 1-4, 13 have been cancelled per Applicant's request, and Claims 5-8 have been amended. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.

2 Claims 5-12 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment (Claims are renumbered as 1-8 respectively)

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a nonobvious improvement over the invention patented in closest prior arts of record. The improvement comprises the step wherein the system comprises switching means for selectively switching an operating conditions thereof to normal and test operating condition, and makes the delay time detection means operate when the system is in a test operation mode; wherein the system executes the test operation mode when operating the system for the first time and/or terminating a maintenance operation including additional installation of base stations, as specifically recited in the claims.

Art Unit: 2665

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
